

COVER LETTER

I am writing to express my interest in any internship or entry-level software development opportunity at your organization. I am a dedicated and goal-oriented third-year student at the Cape Peninsula University of Technology, pursuing a Diploma in Information and Communication Technology (ICT): Applications Development.

With a strong passion for software development, I am eager to apply my academic knowledge to real-world challenges. My studies have equipped me with practical experience in designing and developing applications, and I take pride in contributing innovative ideas in team settings to achieve shared goals. I am particularly drawn to collaborative environments where I can grow, learn from others, and actively participate in creating effective technology solutions. My strong communication skills allow me to effectively convey ideas and information, both in technical and non-technical contexts. I am committed to continuous personal and professional development, striving to excel in every task I undertake and grow into a well-rounded Software Developer. I admire your organization's work in the tech space and would be honored to contribute to your team. I am confident that my skills, determination, and eagerness to learn will make me a valuable asset.

Thank you for considering my application. I have attached my CV for your review and would be grateful for the opportunity to further discuss how I can contribute. I am available for an interview at your convenience and can be reached at +27 78 630 0493 or via email.

Sincerely,

Sibahle Josline Anita Lottering
